Yugoslavs arrest 'spies'

BELGRADE, March 11, (UPI) — Yugoslavia has arrested the Belgrade correspondent of the West German magazine Der Spiegel and charged him with spying, the official news agency Tanjug said today.

Tanjug said Hans-Peter Rullmann was arrested with two other persons, both Yugoslav citizens. They were identified as Ljilja Taci, correspondent for the newspaper Rjlinda, and Jovan Trkulja, a military employe. ✓

The new agency gave no details of the arrest under the Yugoslav criminal code dealing with spies other than to say they had been charged espionage.

Der Spiegel drew criticism from Yugoslav newspapers last month for a story describing what it said was growing unrest in the Yugoslav armed forces. Mr. Rullmann said Feb. 13 he had not written the story.
